Now this meeting is to be continued for two weeks and it is hoped that every one of the community will put aside anything that might hinder and go, and get good and do good.

OHIO GOES DEMOCRATIC
While there are many uncertainties and nothing at all that is really definite in regard to the result of the vote last Tuesday, there is every probability that Mr. Cox is elected governor. Mr. Pomeroy is re-elected U. S. Senator and the entire cabinet of State officers with the possible exception of Attorney General Turner will be Democratic.

The indications are that the General Assembly in both branches will be Democratic. The returns are coming in very slowly and contest is very close.

SEVERELY INJURED IN RAILROAD ACCIDENT

Chas. Booher, 22, who drives a milk wagon for the Reliable Dairy in Napoleon was severely injured last Sunday morning when his wagon was struck by an east bound Wabash passenger engine. The wagon was smashed into kindling wood cutting the horse loose. Booher suffered a broken shoulder and wrist and an ugly three inch gash in his head, a severe bruise on his back and many other cuts and bruises about his body. Recovery is uncertain.

STRICKEN AUTO DRIVER

John H. Smith, 57, proprietor of the Merchant hotel, at Toledo and a former resident of Liberty Center, probably was unconscious when his auto went into a ditch on the Bancroft road, near Ottawa hills, on Sunday afternoon, fatally injuring him. Coroner Henzler believes Smith was stricken with vertigo while at the wheel. The auto kept the road for 75 feet. A wheel broke as it went into the ditch. Smith was tossed against the windshield.

The only injury was just above his temple. Coroner Henzler said the blow probably caused concussion of the brain. She lived only about five minutes after the plunge.

The remains were taken to Liberty Center for interment Wednesday morning.

In that hour of shadows when folks need our assistance it is then they vision clearly our dependability. They know that we are experienced and proficient and that our equipment is all that can be asked for.

FOR SALE—Good farms, all sizes and conditions, located in Ashland, Marion, Wyandotte, County, Ohio, September 22, 1848. Removed to Upper Sandusky in the Spring of 1860 and joined the M. E. church there, about 1864, under the pastorate of the late Rev. L. C. Webster. In 1868 he came to Ottokree, Fulton County, with his parents and spent several years of his early manhood on the farm. He was married on March 10th, 1878, to Cora B. Rix, of Toledo. Later they moved to Wauseon and later still to Columbus, Ohio, where he held a position under Governor Foraker. In 1894, they came to Toledo and have made their home there ever since. Three little daughters were born to them, Blanche, Belle and Florence, of whom only one is living. Florence died when eighteen months old and Belle when six and one half years.

Shortly after coming to Toledo they united with the Epworth Church with which they have ever since been identified. Besides the widow and daughter, there survive him, two sisters, Mrs. W. H. Handy of Ottawa, Ohio, and Mrs. Lou N. Newell of Ypsilanti, Michigan.

Funeral services were conducted in the home at Toledo, Thursday at 12, by Dr. E. E. McCammon, assisted by Rev. Stephen Mahon, of Epworth Methodist church, of which Mr. Van Arsdale was a member. The body was brought to Wauseon Thursday afternoon at three o'clock and interred in Wauseon cemetery.

Is a Hog Like This Worth 20 Cts. More Than a Hog Like This?

YET—the fat, sleek one at the left cost only 20 cents more to bring to market—ing size than the weak, sickly "specimen" at the right, due to the use of Avalon Farms HOG-TONE.

This remedy—tried out thoroughly on the well-known Avalon Farms in Indiana near Ft. Wayne—has wrought wonderful results with hogs. It absolutely removes deadly Throat Worms—Stomach Worms—Liver Worms—Lung and Bronchial Worms. HOG-TONE not only keeps the hogs free from worms, in addition it is a first-class general conditioner—stimulates secretory and digestive organs. Thus it spurs on their appetites, makes them grow faster, gives them the ability to get more flesh-building good out of feed.

There is nothing else like it. Farmers know its wonderful hog-raising, money-making value. We want every hog-raiser to know of it—to try it on his hogs.

We have stocked Avalon Farms with the best quality of hogs for sale. Come in and talk to us about it.
